We must vacate the building No. 361 Sixth Avenue on Jan. 1.

The assortment includes every fashionable shape for Men. Women, Children and Infants. CHILDREN'S SPRING HERLEUT-

THIS WEEK WE HAVE PLACED ON SALE OUR ENTIRE SELEC

Just think of it—a Burt's first quality Kid Button Boot for only $3.29 a pair. A lower price than is charged by an other dealer for much inferior grades

WE HAVE SELECTED ABOUT 8,000 PATES OF MEN'S AND BOYS' FINE CALF SUTTON CONGRESS AND LACED SHOES OUR OWN MAKE, NOT BURTS, WHICH HAVE BERN $4.00, $4.50, $5.00 AND $5.50 A PAIR AND MARKED THEM $2.89 TON. ALL STYLES: SIZES 4 TO 6, WIDTH A TO E; FORMER PRICES, $1.75, $2.00 AND 82 50; REDUCED TO UNIFORM PRICE OF..... We have an unusually large assort.

nent of Fancy Slippers and Low Fhoes suitable for full dress, all marked lown to one-half former prices. ABOUT 200 PAIRS MEN'S IMI-

TATION ALLIGATOR BLIP-PERS ALSO VELVET EM-BROIDERED SLIPPERS - AL-MOST GIVEN AWAY: ONLY

We advise every one in want of FINE. RELIABLE FOOTWEAR to take ad. vantage of this Clearing Sale at Half Prices. A genuine offer of this kind of Grand and Foreyth Streets.

361

Sixth Ave.

A Stream of Sympathizers to the Dead Banker's Home.

Hundreds of prominent citizens, tedies, old men and young, have ascended the bro brown-stone steps to the home of August Beitanding in the portals with uncovered hands, have tendered their condelence ing their cards in every instance, for no one simitted to enter the house where the dust of the great banker and man to all paim trees, palmettoes and ferns, and all sorts The dangeter, Mrs. S. S. Howland, is ill in which are exhibited by a number of well-bed at her home in Livingston County, too ill known horticulturists. to make the journey to New York.

Its handles are of solid silver.

Holiday Stock.

THANKSGIVING SALE OF

Damasks & Towels.

300 DOZ. LINEN TOWELS, WORTH

200 DOZ. LINEN TOWELS, WORTH

ALL GAEN DAMASK, WORTH

ALL LINEN DAMASK, WORTH

ALL LINEN DAMASE, WORTH

ALL LINEN DAMASK, WORTH

IRISH LINEN DAMASK, WORTH 91 00, AT..... 200 DOZ. PURE LINEN NAPKINS 69 TO 85c

WORTH THE AT

150 PIECES PLAIDS, STRIPES AND

TAS, WORTH, 160, AT

DRESS COODS.

DOLLS. DOLLS.

A part of our Great Collection

now on sale. These little ladies

361 Sixth Ave. Between 22d and 23d Streets.

NOTICE.-The closing-out sale at 361 Mixth Avenue does Not affect the continu-ation of our business at the Stores Corner of Grand and Fersyth Streets.

A GREAT BOWER OF BEAUTY.

Floral Features at the Flower Show

in Madison Square Garden.

The spacious arens of the Madison Square Garden is blooming with a tropical display of

of beautiful flowers and handsome plants,

As the visitor enters the areas the attention

COWBOYS IN BATTLE.

Over 500 Shots Fired in a Running

Fight with Mexicans,

SPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD.

rived in this city last night from Anton Chico,

&

WE ARE PANED FAR AND WIDE; OUR HANDKERCHIEF AND RUCHING DE-PARTMENTS, FOR SUPERIOR GOODS AT

THESE GOODS WORTH DOUBLE. CHIEFS AT HANDKER-

23e

12 No.

CHIEFS AT HANDKER-

CHIRFS AT HANDKER

HANDKERCHIEFS AT

HANDKERCHIEFS AT

HANDKERCHIEF SAT

HANDKERCHIEFS AT

GENTLEMEN'S LINEN HAND-

FEATHER RUCHES

HUNDREDS OF STYLES OF RUCHINGS OF EVERY DESCRIPTION, Se. PER YARD TO $1.50,

KNIT GOODS

VENTA, LONG BLEEVES, WIN 25C.

HONE, TWO TONKS, COTTON 25c.

BURTS AND DE AWERS, ALT 50c.

O DOZ. PINE WOOL VESTS, SLEEVELESS, JESSEY FITING, IN PINE LIGHT BLUE SCARL T. NATURAL AND WHITE

DOZ. MEN'S FINE EMGLISH MERINO HALF HUSE, TAN

A LOT OF 28e. AND 86e. HCARPA. HILK AND SATIN KNOT, ALSO FOUR-IN-HANDS

8th Ave., 24th and 25th Sts.

STORE OPEN ON WEDNESDAY EVENING.

Department to make room for our immense

Clearing Sales all day and Evening in every speech, but his ear bended to every tale of woe and his heart and purse responded to every story of real distress. Among those who left cards of sympathy at the cards of the listensy than the cards of the ca the crape-decked door of the Belmont home were Grover Cleveland, ex-Secretary Hamil-ton fish, Manton Marble, Butler Duncan, Mr. and Mrs. William C. Whitney and Robert

Mr. and Mrs. Translations of condolence have come by the hundred from all parts of America and Europe, and the expressions are something more than the formal expression usually elicited by the death of a man of mark.

It so in this account, and in the hope that her strength will return sufficiently to enable her to make the journey, that the funeral was fixed for saturday.

The obsequies will be held at the Protestant Episcopal Church of the Ascension, Firth avenue and Eleventh street, at 10 o'clock that morning.

Rev. Dr. E. Winchester Donald, rector of the church, will read the simple, pretty burial service of the English Church. There will be represented to the source of the strength of the area. O here survives of the centre of the area. O here survives of the English Church. There will be the simple of the simple of the strength of the centre of the area. O here survives of the English Church. There will be the simple of the simp service of the English Church. There will be Rev. Milo H. Gates, will assist in the funeral ies, and there will be music by Organat John White and the choir, a double-quartet

The body of August Belmont now lies at the house, 100 Fifth avenue, in a black velvet maket, lined and trimmed with corded silk.

near the upper end of the sall, which is finnked by a dense grouping of ierns paims and green shrubbery. There are 180 different kinds of lady's slipper orenida, besides a large variety of the rarer and more showy species of this plant. They are hung in baskets among the rater tree. The face of the dead man is remarkably In the centre of the Garden are a number of natural, its features abowing no mark of the booths where cut flowers of every variety are saffering which he underweat nor the last sold by the young ladies in charge. suffering which he underwent nor the last struggle with the grim messenger.

The interment will be in the Beimont plot at Newport, the gay Summer capital, the brilliancy of whose seasons August Beimont and his family helped to intensify.

It has not yet been determined who shall act as pail-bearers, but the reader may be assured that they will be men distinguished in the mation.

ation.

The flags over the houses of the Manhattan and the Union clubs have seen lowered to half member.

August Belmeut was one of the founders of the Manhattan Club, associated with Semmel
3. Tiden, John Van Buren, Caerles O'Copor,
M. L. M. Barlow—ull passed out into the mysterrious, unfathomable beyond—and Manton Marble, Edward Cooper, and others of the distinguished living.

in the mysical passed out into the mysical terrious, unfathomable beyond—and Manton Marble, Edward Cooper, and others of the distinuished livins.

Mr. Beimont was a moving member of the Eniode the Courter and American Jockey Cirbs.

The destinof the great banker is the subject of conversation in every group in business New York, and every man has a kindly remembrance of Mr. Belmost.

He had a brusque, gruff, crisp manner of call for officers.

TRUESDELL

We have just received a special importation direct from Constantinople, and chosen with a view of their adaptability to American Homes. They include Cushion Covers, Hangings, Scarfs, Bed-Spreads, Pillow Covers, Chimney Covers, Tea Cosies. Screens, and an infinite variety 756. Screens, and an infinite variety of articles, all particularly 69. suitable for the > Holidays. 18th St., 19th St. and 6th Ave

(18th St. Station Elevated Road.)

Succi's Jaws Getting Wolf-Like in Their Thinness.

'swenty days since breakfast, and dinner still twenty-five day anticapation! Perhaps Sig. Glovanni bucci was thinking of tals when an Eventuc World reporter dropped in upon him this morning. At any rate, the little Italian was gloomy and not talkative. He brightened up with an effort, but insisted with a vehemence that eemed to indicate a reasonable doubt that he · feela vera wei! !"

had wasted half a pound since yester morn, and well hed but 121 pounds 7 ounces - nearly twenty-six pounds less than twenty days ago, when he last tasted food. lits pulse feebly ticked out fifty-three beats to a minute and his temperature was 98.4 degrees, but with a mighty effort be squeezed 47 retr marcon.

The small one-flowered plants in poss at the lower end of the hall are by far the most interesting of the obrysanthemum exhibits. Some of those blossoms are of enormous size and rich and magn floent is coloring.

There is an interesting exhibit of orchids near the upper end of the hall, which is flanked the disass grounding of terms palms and green sniffed at the sceptical reporters. But his Jaws were wolf-like in their thinness, his lean shanks were weak and he was groggy on his pins. "Bee I" he excisimed in a paroxysm of energy, reaching out for his bottle of elixir. "See if I am weak!" and with a hand as firm as steel be counted twenty-three drops of the or steel be counted twenty-three drops of the precious fluid as it came slowly from the month of the vial and fell drip, dripping into a glass.

The stuff is a little litiner than the finest silver drip strup, and the nand of the empty man was so slendy that each drop was a clean, distinct globule, and there was an interval of fully three seconds between drops.

'You tills I no go fort. five day! I no like zait Wan man he wash at to be that me I cannot do it, I say wan tousehed dollar. He say wan hunert, I say all right! He run away! See You unnersthand?'

The attuff in the Old Fort at One Hundred and Tenth street and Eighth avenue, the northern boundary of Central Park.

This duly has come to be regarded as a vested right of the old warrior, and se carried out the oremony this morning with his accustomed dignity.

He was accompanied in the ceremony by a deschment from the Continental Guards, a squad of Veteran Zouaves and another from

"Bimeby zere vill be more pipples to see mi the Post-Office, all Federal buildings, the starve," he said brightly. "Wan, two beaustarve," he said brightly.

The University medical students who, out of purely professional curronity, are watching the progress of Succi's experiment with his objective organs, are much incensed at the morning p per that stated the other day that they had descried the posts because they had asked for pay and beautreful to the posts because they had asked for pay and the posts because they had asked for pay and the posts because they had asked for pay and the posts because they had asked for pay and the posts because they had asked for pay and the posts because they had asked for pay and the posts because they had asked for pay and the posts because they had asked for pay and the posts because they had asked for pay and the posts because they had asked for pay and the progress of the part of the progress of the part of the par

LOPPY IN MURDERERS' ROW.

se. The Convicted Wife-Killer Trem-

his feet.

When an Eventso World reporter saw him this ment has been an Eventson World reporter saw him this morning he was trembling so much that his teeth chattered, and he was hardly able to speak without an effort.

His face was wan and pinched, and the Warden said that he lell away two pounds since his conviction tefore Recorder Smyth, in the Court of General Sessions resterdar.

He stabled to death his wife, July 4, at 220

Chrystic street.

Thirty longshore

TRAMPS BURNED TO DEATH.

And a Dozen Fine Horses Roasted in Their Stables.

[SPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD.] LOHAX, BL., Nov. 23.—Two tramps were burned to death, a third badly injured and a dozen flue horses and large quantities of grain and hay were de-troyed that night by a fire which consumed the large stock barn of Dr. O. H. Rassell, who lives near this place.

The money loss will reach $10,000.

Stern Bros. Stern Bros. BARGAINS SPECIAL SALE

THE WORLD: TUESDAY EVENING, NOVEMBER 25, 1890.

LADIES' French Hand-Embroidered Linen Handkerchiefs, with White and Colored Drawers - - -Scallops, at

MEN'S Japanese Silk Initial Handkerchiefs, at

Also a Large Assortment of Ladies' Crape and Pineapple Silk Embroidered Handkerchiefs

Very Low Prices

1783-EVACUATION DAY-1890

The Old Guard's 'Celebration of This Patriotic Anniversary.

The Stars and Stripes were revereatly and expitantly displayed on two historic flagstaffs in this city at daybreak this morning...the one evacuation of New York by the British forces At the Battery O. R. Porben grandeen colors, in the presence of members of the Con-Veterans' Association, of the Bixty-second number of citizens.

to the cebo. tant J. Gould Warner raised the National col-

You unnerstand?"
The attenuance yeaterday was about two hundred and fifty, and Succi brightened as he talked of the constantly-increasing throng of Flags patriotically decorated the City Hall, tiful laddies say sey vill coom make museck to entertain.

"Ze Madames De Rosa. Wan play ze tum, tum—se viola. Ze ozzair play ze p ano. Madames Sadie Martinot, she come. Ze charm, iraceful Carmencita, I taka Spanish wis her. Madame Cyrene, ze beautiful, she come, and Madame Marte Lioyd.

Then Succi of the Rosa is sughter.

Then Succi of the Rosa is sughter. Succi of the Makey of gorging and turkey alaughter. In twenty-four hours 18 ounces of Kaiser, 69, of Croton and 23 drops of citixir. Tae cigar and the cigarette are discarded for the plue of bad, strong tobacco.

John R. Doris offered Succi 22, 000 a week to move to the Rightn arenue museum and there complete his fast, but succi indignatily decilined. He inflowed protein museum and there complete his fast, but succi indignatily decilined. He inflowed protein museum and there complete his fast, but succi indignatily decilined. He inflowed protein museum and there complete his fast, but succi indignatily decilined. He inflowed protein museum and there complete his fast, but succi indignatily decilined. He inflowed protein museum and there complete his fast, but succi indignatily decilined. He inflowed protein museum and there are not a show. No freak, but an explorer for science.

Then the united command marched there are the united command marched the colors with a National sincere Ristonal and parriotic airs.

Then the united command marched through Beaver, Broad and Nassau streets to the posts because they had asked for pay and been refus d.

They declare that they have never suggested or even thought of other pay than the livaluable medical experience they were getting, and that the young men detailed from that newspaper as watchers hamper them considerably in their work, and seen to be laboring under the impression that they are running the affair in Starvation Hall.

Honor the Hall Hallparator?

LOPPY IN MURDERERS' ROW.

The Convicted Wife-Killer Trembles with Fear.

Martin D. Lopey, the convicted wife-murderer, who will be sentenced Friday to be electrocated, was this morning placed in a cell in Murderer's Row in the Tombs, where he will remain until taken to Sing Sing to explate his crime in the electric chair.

Loppy expected a verdet of manslaughter, and, the to him unexpected result has so underweaking that he is hardly able to stand on his feet.

Ween an Eventson World reporter saw him this morning he was trembling so much that the manner of New York, G. A. R., and manner the payment of New York, G. A. R., and manner the payment of New York, G. A. R., and manner the payment of New York, G. A. R., and manner the payment of New York, G. A. R., and manner the payment of New York, G. A. R., and manner others.

LODGERS WERE PANIC-STRICKEN

Man Badly Burned and Others Frighttened at a Lodging-House Fire. Thirty longshoremen, who slept in Henry Bose's lodging-house at 287 West street, were awakened at 1.15 a. M. to-day by the cry of to escape.

The fire was on the third floor and started from some unknown cause. The fiames spread

In Ladies'

Chemises

Night Robes -Walking Skirts - 75.

WEAR. Short Dresses. 75. 98. 195

LONG Flannel Skirts, 1191451298

HE WAS RICH AND HAD A PULL

A Third Avenue Merchant Gets Off with 161, 163, 165, 167 & 169 Sixth Ave., a $1,000 Fine for Abduction.

who, under the fictitions name of John stevens, was fined $1,000 by Judge Cowing in Stevens, was fined $1,000 by Judge Cowing in NOT AT ALL TIMES THE BRET FOR WEAK the General Sessions for abduction, is a questhe General Sessions for abduction, is a question that is everywhere asked to-day.

"Stevens" was arraigned yesterday on an indictment charging idm with attempted abduction. His victim, protty thirteen-year-old Adeline Ekiand, was in coort. President
Gerry, of the Society for the Prevention of THE KND AND THE PATKET

COUNTY TO CHIEFER WE CONSIDER THE AMOUNT OF MORET LEATHER SHOES, THE ACCOUNT IS MORE
EVENLY BALANCEAD. AND THE PATKET

LEATHER PROVES ABOUT AS CHEAP IN COUNTY TO CHIEFE. Atterney Jarome recommended to the Court

$1,000-a very unusual levy-on his plea of OR PRICES AS LOW FOR THE QUALITY "Stevens" took a crisp thousand-dollar bill MENT. from his porket, handed it to the Clerk and harried out of court. Nobody but the officials identity. Nov. 6 in the hallway of the house 5 Delances station. Adeline Exland, a little newsgirl who lives at 18 Montgomery street, was with him. At the station-house it became known that where arrested for infamous purposes met the child in Battery Park, parly the same to 5 Delancey street, which is known as a dis He followed her to the door, but when he attempted to enter he was ejected by the proprietress. A man named August Ries proprietres. A man named August Hies drew Reap's attention to the pair, and the detective arrested them.

The next morning "Stevens" was arraigned before Judge Hogan in Essex Market Court, and stated hie occupation as a drammer and his home as Newark. He was committed under 90,000 ball for the Grand Jury.

It was known that "Stovens" gave a false pame, and the fact of his respectable connections became a matter of court-room gossip.

The Chidren's Society meanwhite "to, orously prosecuted the case. When "Stevens" was called to the bar yesterity, several of his friends were in court. The District-Attorney's office had been apprised of the lact, and when Judge Cowing imposed a fine instead of committing the man to prison a genuine sensation was caused.

Assistant District-Attorney Jerome had in the meanwhile indorsed on the papers the following:

"I have carefully examined this one. The the meanwhile indorsed on the papers the following:

"I have carefully examined this once. The defendant is a man of heretofore good character. He has a wife and children. I am fully apprised of all the facts in the case, and I recommend that the heariest fine be imposed and for the sake of his wife and children the defendant be not imprisoned."

Judge Hogan told an Evening World reporter to-day that so far as he was concerned there was to effort to concer any facts. The man's lawyer waived examination, which should not even asking him his real pedigree, and all the justice had to do was to commit him.

Mr. Gerry said:

"The man's sick wife knows nothing of the affair, and as the little girl is unburt I deem it a proper case for a fine. If it should be known who the man is, diagrace and much misery would follow."

An Evening World preparer this morning

would follow."

An Evenine World reporter this morning discovered that "Stevens" is owner of a clothing store on upper Taird avenue.

For a long time, it is said, he abstained from the use of liquor until two days preceding his arrest, when he went on a prolonged spree.

MORE TROOPS HELD READY. The Fort Logan Garrison Gets Its

Indian Emergency Orders. DENVER, Col., Nov. 25. -The Republican

has advices from Port Logan that the field transportation for the troops at this post has left for the scene of the ladian troubles in Da kots, and that the entire garrison has been ordered to hold staelf in readiness to march at a moment's notice. Her Load of Trouble Lightened.

The young widow of John Manning, Secretary of the Steamstters' Union, was committed suicide last night by shooting himself through the head at his home, 1004 First avenue, was this moreing releved of a load of trouble by a letter from B. M. Cowpertnwait, the furni-ture dealers at 185-205 Fark Row, informing her that in sympathy with her lose they had cancelled her indebtedness for furniture, which amounted to $177.80.

Misses'

SPECIAL SALE

Misses' English Walking A SEVENTY-NINE COME. Jackets, tailor made and as BIGHTY-WINE courts. bound with braid, 12 to 18

3.98, worth 5.50. Children's Combination

Plaid Coats, trimmed with silk cord, 6 to 14 years,

5.98, worth 7.75.

Misses' Fine French Check Newmarkets, Astrakhan Yoke and Capes, 12 to 16 years,

9.50, worth 12.00. Two Piece Dresses-Broken

Lines-4 to 16 years, 3.98, 5.00 to 12.00

Mourning Goats, Jackets and Uresses a Specialty

CORNER 12TH ST. A LOTTERY OF SHORS

ADMITTING THAT PATENT LEATHER IS MORE DRESSY.

AT THE PRESENT TIME NO CORRECTLY DRESSED MAN VENTURES TO DO WITH OUT A PAIR OF THESE BRILLIANT FOOT COVERINGS IN HIS WARDROBE, NOWHERE CAN SUCH A HUGE VARIETY BE FOUND

SEWED WELT KID TOP LACE $5.00 SHOES ... MEN'S PATENT LEATHER HAND BEWED CLOTH TOP BUTTON $5.00 BROES ... MEN'S PATRAT LEATHER HAND-

GAITERS. KITHER WITH CLOTH $5.00 FOR DRESS WEAR AND LIGHT DES THE LINE OF PATRIT LEATHER SHORE HAVE NO EQUAL. WILL PIT CLOSE WITHOUT PINCHING AND REQUIRE NO BREAKING IN. ALL KINDS OF RELIABLE FOOT COVER ING FOR MAN. WOMAN OR CHILD FOR LESS MONEY THAN SAME GRADE OF GOODS CAN

Send for Catalogue, Mailed Bros.

BE BOUGHT KLEEWHERE.

Sixth Avenue, corner 12th Street.

SAYS HE WAS CRUELLY CLUBBED. Serious Allegations Made Against Harlem Police by a Prisoner.

After James McNamara and Joseph Mo Makon were held at the Hartom Court to-day in $500 each for trial on the charge of felond onaly assaulting William Ryan at Madison avenue and Eighty-fifts street last Sunday night, McNamars told an Evening WonLD reporter that he had been bruially clubbed in the station-house by officers there ster his arrest.

McNamars did hot denythe assault on Ryan, but declared that he had made no resistance to the officers and showe discolerations on his legs, which he said were caused by the policemen's might sticky.

The story was especially denied by Sergt. Ryan, who was on the deak when McNamara was brought in. He declared that the whole story was an invention and would be so proven if McNamara about Julian is threat to complain to the Police Board. McNamara has served a senience for manulaughter. onely assaulting William Ryan at Madis

MADE FAT BY MEDICINE.

Dr. Bean Fought Malaria and Got to Weigh 495 Pounds. BOSTON, Nov. 25. -Dr. Charles T. Sean, o

Chelses, died at his residence on Washington avenue inst night of pneumonia.

He was born in Maine sixty years ago, and during the war, while is active service in the South, contracted malaria.

Through the operation of the medicine with which he fought the faver he became gradually corpulent.

His normal weight was 250 pounds, and he was 6 feet 1 inch in height; but at the time of his death he weighted 455 pounds.

D'NEILL'S HEARN

29, 94, 96 AND 80 WEST FOURTEENTH STREET.

SPECIAL OFFERINGS IN DERES GOODS.

Above are fine Pabrass of this Pail's importation. ght and for best city trade—the most imertant offering of rich, nest Dress Goods yet pre-new thades and high colorings to Scooptomally soft and instrons.

Quality equal to any hitherto sold at a dollar. At Mixty-nine Conts,

HEAVY DIAGONALS and CHEVRON PLAIDS. SCOTOR MIXTURES and BROKEN CHECKS, All l'ifty-four inches wide

The most desirable fabrics of the season.

a hundred pieces PRESON ALL-WOOL BERGES.

At Pifty-four Conts.

there is no more popular department for sale of then that within our famous basements—A de perturent established and maintained on the princi ple thus 'tis becter to ''quickly sell much at small ever find appreciation.

One lot of Misses' One and select both quick and great enable us to keep stock wo Piece Dresses—Broken berhes sriicies known as "Notiona," at prices that advance than slowly sell little at large profit,". ever find appreciation.

Brosh's Cotton.

Brosh's Cotton.

Barbeur's Lines do., he.
Barbeur's Lines do., he.
Bono Casings, 9 7d pc Sc.
Benning Cotton, dos. 4c.
Boostinet Shields.

70.
Balls.

2 cents; worth .05 7 cents; worth 5 cents; worth .10 8 cents; worth Japanese Tire Boreau to their exclusive styles of

French Hand-Made

ranging in price from $1.75 to $15.00.

PARIS CORSET,

THE Classique.

15 DIFFERENT MODELS.

The most perfect in the world, fitting the most difficult figure and giving the form a symmetry not attainable by any other.

Also to their new

OUR STOCK OF BLANKETS

-house keepers, and those who have qua New York to select from-at lower prices then th

oan elsewhere buy. As instances of value we cu

10-4 White Wool Blankets, $1.89; worth $2.0 11-4 White Blankets, 12-4 White Wool Blankets, 1.50; worth 2.25 3.25; worth 5.00

Fine White Cultfernia Bla ith handsome damask borders in pink, blue see

AT FOUR NINETY-EIGHT.

Pillows-Bed and Sofa.

MATTRESSES AND BOLSTERS made and delivered in two days Quality and Weight Guaranteed.

We have the largest assortment of Road and Stable Blankets.

Fur. Plush and Weel Lap Robos. Rubber Sheets, dec., to be found in New York and sell at the lowest prices.

Gray Plaids and Striped Blankets Extra Kersey—shaped and bound Heavy Fawn Road Blankets All-Wool Plaid Road Blankets All-Wool Truck Biankets—Heavy Fawn Undertakers' All-Wool Black Square Biankets Plush Carriage Rober

Special Bargains in

REQUISITES in Trunk Department .- Third Floo

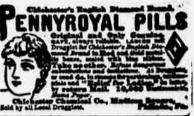

IT LOOKS SO BAD

which has perfect and permanent alignment. 291 Broadway.

MADE WITH BOILING WATER.

COCOA

ARTIFICIAL HUMAN EYES

LKIGH ROBKS. SINTOH ROBKS.
Jold weather and deep snow coming:
sighting soon; now is the time to they Robest tead Overcosts, Sealetin Cape and Gioves; bar low; may be higher ister on; don't delay; buy
J. U. SHATNE, updown, 126 Weet 42d st.; c own, 102 Frices st. LOST, FOUND AND REWARD. $10 REWARD for return to Mr. Hall deg seamed Spring; had on muscle and black dry seamed Spring; had on muscle and licens 4.772 when lost, Nov. 21.

HORRES AND CARRIAGES

COLLEGES, SCHOOLS, STC. TENOGRAPHY and typewriting, 515 Broadwa PURNITURE.

L ADIES I sail furniture without requiring cast deposit; give longest credit. "Manufacturers Agent," 105 West 29th st. HELP WANTED-MALE. WANTED-Lithographic steam press men as: leaders for short distance out of town; goe wages. Apply at once to V. & L., 29 Warren et.

Commissioners Sworn In. Charles L. Rott and Samuel M. Purdy, two of the resemily appointed School Commis-sfenses, qualified for the offices at the Mayor's office this morning.

SPECIAL VALUES ARE: Slack Bear Robes, wool lined Black Bear Robes, extra large

Fine Leather TOILET, TRAVELLING AND SHOPPING

with the writing all zigag Before purchasing a typewriter call and examine

Smith Premier,

Illustrated catalogues sent on application

EPPS'S

PENNYROYAL PILLS

GOUGELMAN & CO.,

CLIFTON V. W. ENAUR. Signature of the World of the World

PIANDS AND ORGANS. THE EMERSON PIANOS THE EMERSON PIANO CO.

THER LATEST AND BEST-NEPPERT IS proved Patent N. Y. Ottoman and Dast Plane Stools, Plano Covers, Souria, Embroderte, University of Primmings, Music Oabheets and Plane Dusters largest, Speet and complete assurtance of the Propular prices. New Speet, 17 East 15th et., near Union Square, and 390 Canalia. MEDICAL. PRIVATE DISEASES of mon cured in a few days or no charge; manly we restored. Dr. HALLETT, 146 K. 19th st., near 34 s

SANITARIUM for lad ise in a delightful suburb of Skew York: exclusive. Dr. Gray-Bling, asset shour, 239 Lexington ave., near 96th, 8-8, II-I, 5-8 will hold their Thanksgiving Reception in the Dolls' Department Wednesday Afternoon and Evening. Stages to our stores on Wednesday Evening from cor. 8th ave. and 42d st.